

Potluck Design Contest 2010 CONTAINER AUCTION

March 26, 27 & 28nd – Boise Centre on the Grove
Proceeds Benefit the Lunaria League

The Lunaria League is a Non-Profit organization that raises money to support and promote horticultural endeavors, students, events, and botanic gardens throughout Idaho.

A container design contest and silent auction to benefit horticulture and gardens throughout Idaho

Boise Flower and Garden Show - Sponsored by the Idaho Nursery and Landscape Association

Please consider participating with an entry to help us support Idaho horticulture and gardens !

DESIGN: Containers can be designed with anything you would like but must include one perennial plant and can be delivered to the Boise Centre on the Grove. Entries will be displayed at the show with signage noting the name of the designer and company if appropriate. A list or diagram of plant species used must accompany the entry. You can submit multiple entries. Detailed information will be sent to entrants once entry is received.

JUDGING: Entries will be judged by the public on Friday and Saturday and ribbons for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place and the coveted Lunaria League Garden Globe will be awarded on Sunday. Attention to overall design, imagination, catchy colors and cool containers will all help get votes. The Lunaria League Garden Globe goes to the entry with the most votes.

AT THE SHOW: The Potluck Auction will be promoted as a special feature in show advertising. Containers will be displayed during the show
